About the project: The Mums at Work project aims to increase employability, sustainable income and social integration of migrant mothers aged 25-45 years old. The project also aims to raise awareness of and influence key stakeholders (businesses, public sector, local communities, general public) with regards to the importance and mutual benefits of supporting economic and labour integration of migrant mothers in Europe. Additionally, the project aims to create a replicable model for such integration that can be used and integrated at policy-level, by relevant decision-making bodies, including at the EU and national level.

Partners: Mums at Work is co-funded by the European Union's Asylum, Migration and Integration Fund and coordinated by Pro Arbeit (Germany), in partnership with SYNTHESIS Center for Research and Education (Cyprus), Vital Aid Foundation (the Netherlands), Solution: Solidarité & Inclusion (France), C.I.D.I.S. Onlus (Italy), Asociación Bienestar (Spain) and the European Network of Migrant Women (Belgium/EU).
