

AID in progress

MONTHLY NEWSLETTER FOR AID CO-FUNDED BY THE ERASMUS+ PROGRAMME

3 MONTHS OF FRUITFUL WORK 😊

- Online transnational meetings
- Preparing the content for IO1 (intellectual output no 1) – the Curriculum which is a methodological handbook focused on training senior (50+) volunteers
- A workshop for seniors-volunteers in Poland
- Framework of IO2 – an online web app.

ONLINE TRANSNATIONAL MEETINGS

On the last Friday of each month we meet online to discuss important issues, share our thoughts and doubts, make important decisions but also to experience the sheer pleasure of meeting people from different countries despite of unfavourable pandemic conditions. And WHY? BECAUSE we do believe that SENIORS-VOLUNTEERS ARE A MEANS OF IMPROVING THE QUALITY OF LIFE!

This project has been funded with support from the European Commission. This publication reflects the views only of the author, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.

MISSION IO1 COMPLETED!

The first intellectual output – the Curriculum entitled "Seniors-Volunteers as a means to improve the quality of life - a methodological handbook" has finally taken its shape and is ready to be published. Intensive research, creative and editorial work led to the publication planned for the first half of the year. It will soon be available as an e-book in English and in a little while also in the national languages of the project partners.

LOCAL ONLINE ACTIVITIES

"Aktywni XXI" Foundation from Poland held introductory online lectures on senior volunteering for seniors in need of assistance.

FINALLY FACE-TO-FACE! A WORKSHOP FOR SENIORS IN JELENIA GÓRA, POLAND

In the first days of June we began practical testing of individual scenarios contained in the Curriculum. Seniors from the Jelenia Góra Academy of the Third Age, who are preparing themselves for the honourable role of a volunteer, took part in a two-day workshop. During the workshop, they learned self-presentation and communication techniques as well as how to conduct team-building activities. The next workshops will take place after the summer holidays in all partner organisations.
